19.00	War Memorial (junction of Beech Road/Norman Road) Geology Walk with Simon Carpenter. 180 million years ago, during the Jurassic Period, much of the UK was covered by a warm, shallow sea including the area occupied by Salford. Why not join this fascinating walk to discover some of the creatures that lived in this ancient watery world. Many are preserved as fossils in the local rocks. The walk leader will bring a selection of his own fossils for participants to view. This will be a circular walk, visiting a number of rock exposures, starting and finishing at the War Memorial at the bottom of Beech Road. There will be a few stiles, steep slopes and uneven ground, so please ensure you have suitable footwear. The walk will take about 2 hours. £2
19.30	Salford Hall Jazz Night featuring Hannah Wedlock & The Blue Notes. Tickets £12 with beef curry or quorn alternative.
